"Zoomin Day" Video calls with family	September's name comes from the Latin word septem, meaning "seven." This month had originally been the seventh month of the early Roman calendar. This year, Labor Day (the first Monday in September) falls on the 7th.

But now in September the garden has cooled, and with it my possessiveness. The sun warms my back instead of beating on my head ... The harvest has dwindled, and I have grown apart from the intense midsummer relationship that brought it on. – Robert Finch
